

Recognizing work that celebrates importance of place and its preservation

Columbus Landmarks is pleased to award the Ed Lentz Prize in honor of its Director Emeritus. The Ed Lentz Prize is a $500 award given annually to celebrate the winning entry of an individual who has created a work (writing, presentation, film, other) within the past three years that best documents, evokes, interprets, analyzes or captures the importance of place and its preservation. (If an individual is entering on behalf of a group or organization, the prize check is awarded to the individual whose name appears on the entry form.)

2022 ENTRY INFORMATION

CRITERIA:

- Work must contribute to a deeper and more robust understanding of history, architecture, and/or importance of historic preservation and design excellence of the built environment in Central Ohio
- Work must have been created within the past three years

ENTRIES:

- Applicants must submit a completed entry form including the 300-word maximum statement describing how the work fulfills the goals of the prize
- If an entry is submitted in a hard copy format, four copies must be provided
- Columbus Landmarks staff and current Board members are not eligible to win
- Work that has received Columbus Landmarks funding is not eligible to win
- Past entries that still meet the criteria must be re-submitted for consideration
- Entries must be received by 5 p.m. on Feb. 18, 2022 and will not be returned

JUDGING:

A panel of three judges will review all entries meeting the application criteria and format requirements and will select the work of the individual that they consider best in overall quality. Judges reserve the right not to award the prize, if in their opinion no submission merits an award.
